I really appreciate you taking me under your wing. I would also like to thank you for the book and the immediate assignment. You have already exceeded my expectations in having already put me to work. For this I am grateful.

You see, I am the type of guy that once I'm introduced to conflicting information, I absolutely have to find the truth so that I can know, without a doubt, what the truth is. I hate not knowing things once my interest has been piqued. The ACTS retreat was the catalyst that sparked my interest. Until then I had not been introduced to "doctrine." I actually thought that the Baptist denomination was the most prominent all over the U.S. because Baptist is all I have ever really known. I ~~honestly~~ honestly attributed Catholicism mainly to Mexico and Italy. I have been sorely ignorant to the whole truth. But, of course, once Keith saw that I had an interest in the subject, he began to lay fact after fact on me. All of this led me to want to begin my studies. Shortly after I began, I realized that the truth lies in Catholicism. Now I have to know everything about my new found faith.

Anyhow... I believe that you asked to know a little about my life story. Well, I will be 23 years old on July 19th. My wife, Crystal and I have been together Since August 2011. She and I have a 17 month old son named Sean. He and Crystal are truly heaven sent. They have been such a blessing to me. I hope to be blessed with 8 more children. My daddy wanted a baseball team but he was taken from the earth in 1996. So I want to finish that up for him. And my wife has accepted the challenge. I am currently working on my Associates degree. I really want to start a farm when I get enough money saved up. Cattle, produce, the whole nine. Of course I'll probably work in the oil field until then.

I can't wait to join the Church. More than that, though, I want to attend a Catholic Seminary School. Before my interest in converting, my desire was to go to Baylor's Seminary program to become a Protestant pastor. However, I can no longer do so in good conscience, now that the truth has been revealed. Now I face a new problem: I apparently cannot become a Catholic priest due to the fact that I am married. I am told that I can become a deacon though. Deaconship would be a very blessed honor. So, it goes without saying that becoming a Catholic deacon is now my aspiration.

well, that's me in a nutshell. I'm a pretty boring guy. Simple man wanting a simple life while serving the LORD.

I know that this is only my second letter, and I hate to ask something of you so soon - but our Catholic brothers tell me that the Catholic Catechism is a necessity. I have no other means of getting one here. So, if you are able, that would be my first request for reading material. Thank you very much.

May God continue to bless you and your family. I look forward to working more with you.
